Applications are invited for:-

Department of Decision Sciences and Managerial Economics
Professor / Associate Professor / Assistant Professor (Management Information Systems)
(Ref. 1516/057(513)/2) (Closing date: November 30, 2015)

The Department invites applications for a faculty position starting in Fall 2016. Applicants for all ranks will be considered.

Applicants should have (i) a PhD degree in management information systems or related disciplines (by the time reporting for duty); (ii) commitment to high quality research, teaching and services; (iii) an ability to publish in leading MIS journals and with a strong background in teaching; and (iv) the capacity to attract research funds and to contribute to collaborative research with OM and economics disciplines within the Department. Applicants for Professorship / Associate Professorship should also have an outstanding track record of research and teaching accomplishments. The rank of appointment will depend on the applicants’ experience and accomplishments.

The appointee will teach undergraduate, MBA and other postgraduate courses offered by the Department. The primary teaching responsibilities of the applicants will be in the areas of 1) cybersecurity/information security, 2) business analytics, 3) data communications and networking, and/or 4) data mining.

Appointment will normally be made on contract basis for up to three years initially commencing August 2016, which, subject to performance and mutual agreement, may lead to longer-term appointment or substantiation later.

Interviews will be conducted at the International Conference on Information Systems (ICIS 2015) in Texas from December 13 to 16, 2015. Applicants attending the conference are strongly recommended to submit their applications by November 30, 2015.

Salary and Fringe Benefits

Salary will be highly competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience. The University offers a comprehensive fringe benefit package, including medical care, plus a contract-end gratuity for an appointment of two years or longer, and housing benefits for eligible appointee.
