

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS QUARTERLY

Table of Contents

JUNE 1977

Volume 1, Number 2

EDITORIAL PREVIEW	ii
--------------------------------	-----------

INTERVIEWS

Cammeron Clark, Vice Chairman, Warnaco	1
R. E. McDonald, President, Sperry Rand Corporation	7
William G. Phillips, Chairman and Richard King, Vice President, Finance, International Multifoods	13

APPLICATION

"COALESCENCE: The Inevitable Fate of Data Processing," C. W. Getz, General Services Administration	21
A view of the various functions associated with data processing merging at electric speeds.
"Attributes of Information System Development," Hugh F. Juergens, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee	31
A framework for viewing the information systems development process to accommodate change and satisfactorily meet user needs.

THEORY AND RESEARCH

"Computers and the Frustrated Chief Executive," James N. Danziger, University of California, Irvine	43
Extensive empirical data are analyzed to explain the current level of frustration with data processing systems within local governmental units.
"Determining Management Information Needs: A Comparison of Methods," Malcolm C. Munro, University of Calgary, and Gordon B. Davis, University of Minnesota	55
A comparison of the effectiveness of top-down vs. bottom-up information systems analysis.

NINTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OVERVIEW	69
---	-----------