Department of Decision Sciences and Managerial Economics
Professor / Associate Professor / Assistant Professor (Information Systems)
(Ref. 180000JL) (Closing date: November 30, 2018)

The CUHK Business School, a leading, international, pioneering business school, was the first in the region to offer BBA, MBA and Executive MBA programmes. Since its establishment in Hong Kong in 1963, the School has gained world recognition of nurturing business leaders with immense contributions in Asia Pacific, and ranks 36th in the Financial Times Global MBA Ranking 2017.

The CUHK Business School offers a range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes as well as executive education to about 4,400 students. It comprises two Schools: Accountancy and Hotel & Tourism Management; and four Departments: Finance, Decision Sciences & Managerial Economics, Management and Marketing.

The CUHK Business School offers a state-of-the-art campus and stimulating research environment, with attractive remuneration, research funding and all opportunities of a vibrant business school.

The Department of Decision Sciences and Managerial Economics now invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the area of Information Systems commencing Fall 2019. Applicants for all professoriate ranks will be considered.

Applicants should have (i) a PhD degree in Information Systems, Economics, Computer Science or related disciplines (by the time of reporting for duty); (ii) competence in high quality research and demonstrated research interests in, but not limited to, Economics of Information Systems, Business Analytics and FinTech; and (iii) commitment to teaching and services.

Appointment will normally be made on contract basis for up to three years initially, which, subject to performance and mutual agreement, may lead to longer-term appointment or substantiation later.

Interviews will be conducted at the following conferences and workshops: ZEW ICT Conference, Statistical Challenges of E-Commerce Research (SCECR), INFORMS Conference, International Conference on Information Systems (ICIS) and AEA Annual Conference.

Application Procedure
